

CONTROLLED CLIENT CONSOLIDATED MANDATE: NON-NATURAL INDIVIDUAL

In the Mandate and the Schedules and Appendices hereto, unless otherwise clearly indicated by, or inconsistent with the context, the terms used bear the same meaning as are assigned to them in the Financial Markets Act (Act No. 19 of 2012) ("FMAAct"), Financial Advisory and Intermediary Services Act, 2002 (Act No. 37 of 2002) ("FAISAct") including their Regulations, and the Rules and Directives of the JSE Limited ("the rules and directives"), or any amendments or replacements to the Acts and/or the rules and directives, (together, "the applicable legislation").

This Mandate is as contemplated in the JSE rules and the applicable legislation. Every transaction in JSE Authorised Investments entered into by us with you or on your behalf is transacted on the specific condition that the transaction is entered into subject to the FMAAct.

Please complete each Section, Appendix and Schedule applicable to you and provide all the relevant information. Before signing in the relevant spaces provided, carefully read all the terms and conditions, which are available on our website or upon request, for the applicable Sections as well as in the attached Schedules as they form an integral part of this Mandate. This Mandate and the Schedules hereto, shall commence on the date of signature hereof by last signing party, and may be terminated immediately in writing by either party to the other party.

Please note that should any of the information provided by you in this Mandate or the Appendices change, you must advise us of such change/s in writing. Such written advice must be accompanied by the appropriate documentation in support thereof in terms of the requirements of the Financial Intelligence Centre Act (Act No. 38 of 2001) (Amended Act No. 1 of 2017) ("FICA"), where applicable.

ISEC is hereby authorised to manage my Investments at its sole and full discretion taking into account, my investment profile, experience, objectives and risk tolerance as advised in Section E and any preferences and /or constraints as noted below, in order to achieve the investment objectives set out below. This means that my mandate is an unlimited mandate to act on my behalf in order to achieve the investment objective without it being necessary to obtain further authority or consent from me to effect any transaction or make a choice for any elective corporate action in terms of this mandate.

Investment Objective (tick and initial one option only)

High Income: Income growth:	Funds to be invested with a view to maximising dividend and/or interest income over time.
Balanced: Capital Appreciation and Income Growth:	Funds will be invested with a medium to long term capital appreciation objective, taking advantage of both value and growth opportunities that arise and with a view to maximising dividend income over time.
Aggressive: Capital Appreciation:	Funds will be invested on shorter term trading considerations, using market volatility to be opportunistic in switching between assets and including high growth assets when appropriate.

Nature of investments covered by this mandate:

I hereby authorise ISEC to invest in the investments set out in Section D, as detailed above. Where applicable, I have completed and signed the relevant Appendices and Schedules for investments requiring specific authorisation, in terms of legislation.

Specific investment preferences and/or constraints:

(Maximum or minimum percentages in any single asset class; specific geographical areas; markets; industries; specific restrictions due to employment or directorships; restrictions on specific stocks/sectors due to moral, ethical or religious beliefs.)

1. Investing in Securities, traded directly and indirectly on stock exchanges, carries an inherent risk. This means that the value of the assets could go down as well as up, and your capital may depreciate. There are a number of ways in which this could happen. The fundamentals that determine the perceived value of a security could change. The security could be subject to changes in supply and demand resulting in significant price fluctuations. Stock markets are subject to large fluctuations due to economic and political factors. Assessing the relative risk of any of these factors is highly subjective, and can change as a result of a specific event. However, risk can be effectively managed through diversification of asset classes, geographic location, as well as through use of market neutral trading strategies.
2. Investing in unlisted shares involves a higher degree of risk. This is because unlisted shares are not generally tradable and therefore may be a relatively illiquid investment. There is not now, and there may not develop, any active secondary market for the resale of unlisted shares. An investment in unlisted shares should only be considered by persons financially able to maintain their investment for a substantial period of time and who can afford a loss of all or a substantial part of their investment. Because there may not be a recognisable market for unlisted investments it may be difficult for us to deal in any such investments or to obtain reliable information about their value or the extent of the risks to which such investments are exposed.
3. By your signature to the Mandate, you acknowledge that you have been informed of the risks inherent in the investments as contained in Schedule A, from time to time. In addition, you accept that such risk may result in financial loss to you.
4. You hereby indemnify the firm and hold us harmless against – any loss incurred on your behalf pursuant to any bona fide investment made by us in terms of the Mandate; and any and all claims, damages, liabilities, costs and expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees, which may be brought against us by reason of the operation of your account.
5. You hereby indemnify any third party with whom we contract on your behalf and hold us or any such third party harmless from: any loss incurred on your behalf pursuant to any bona fide investment made by us with such third party in terms of the Mandate; and any and all claims, damages, liabilities, costs and expenses, including reasonable Attorney's Fees, which may be brought against us by reason of the operation of your account with respect to investments made for you with third parties.
6. Nothing herein contained shall however absolve us from liability for loss suffered by you or any other person through any act of fraud, theft, bad faith, dishonesty or gross negligence on our part or on the part of our employees. The afore going notwithstanding we assume no liability whatsoever for any act of fraud, theft, bad faith, dishonesty or gross negligence on the part of any third party as mentioned above, or on the part of any such third party's employees. Nor do we assume any liability in the event of the insolvency or subsequent sequestration or liquidation of such third party's estate.

I hereby specifically authorise ISEC to invest in Securities on my behalf. And hereby confirm that I have read the terms and conditions applicable to this schedule.

Derivatives investments carry a high level of risk to your capital as they are leveraged products. Only deal in derivatives with funds you can afford to lose as you may lose more than your original deposit. Derivatives can be very volatile and prices may move rapidly against you. Resulting losses may require further payments to be made. This notice does not disclose all of the risks and other significant aspects of derivative products. Derivatives may not be suitable for all clients so you should ensure you fully understand the risks involved and seek independent advice if necessary. Please read the following:

RISK DISCLOSURE STATEMENTS AS REQUIRED BY THE RULES OF THE JSE

This risk disclosure statement is issued by SAFEX pursuant to the Rules of the JSE Ltd.

The risk of loss arising from trading in futures and options can be substantial. You should carefully consider whether such Investments are suitable for you in the light of your circumstances and financial resources. You should be aware of the following points:

1. If the market moves against your position, you may, in a relatively short time, sustain more than a total loss of the funds placed by way of margin or deposit with your member. You may be required to deposit a substantial additional sum, at short notice, to maintain your margin balances. If you do not maintain your margin balances your position may be closed out at a loss and you will be liable for any resulting deficit.
2. Under certain market conditions it may be difficult or impossible to close out a position. This may occur, for example, where trading is suspended or restricted at times of rapid price movement.
3. Where permitted, placing a stop-loss order will not necessarily limit your losses to the intended amounts, for market conditions may make it impossible to execute such orders at the stipulated price.
4. A spread or straddle position may be as risky as a simple long or short position and can be more complex.
5. Markets in futures and options can be highly volatile and Investments in them carry a substantial risk of loss. The high degree of “gearing” or “leverage” which is often obtainable in trading these contracts stems from the payment of what is a comparatively modest deposit or margin when compared with the overall contract value. As a result, a relatively small market movement can, in addition to achieving substantial gains, where the market moves in your favour, result in substantial losses which may exceed your original investment where there is an equally small movement against you.
6. When your member deals on your behalf, you should do so only in the contracts listed on the JSE Ltd. Should you deal in contracts not listed on the JSE Ltd, then you do so at your own increased risk.
7. Prior to the commencement of trading, you should require from your member written confirmation of all current commission, fees and other transaction charges for which you will be liable.
8. Members may also be dealers trading for their own account in the same markets as you, in which case their involvement could be contrary to your interests.
9. You should carefully consider whether your financial position permits you to participate in a syndicate. Areas of particular concern are:
 - 9.1. charges for management, advisor and brokerage fees;
 - 9.2. the performance record of the syndicate and for how long it has been operating, and
 - 9.3. the credibility of management.
10. A member of our staff will explain to you the meaning of the various terms set out herein so that you are fully aware of their significance, should you so wish.
11. If you have any doubts or concerns regarding the risks in trading financial futures you may contact the JSE Ltd for more detailed information before signing the acknowledgement.

This brief statement cannot disclose all risks of Investments in financial futures and options. They are not suitable for many members of the public and you should carefully study such Investments before you commit funds to them. They may also have tax consequences and on this you should consult your lawyer, accountant or other tax advisor.

I hereby specifically authorise ISEC to invest in Derivative Instruments on my behalf. And hereby confirm that I have read the terms and conditions applicable to this schedule.

1. Inherent risks and Indemnities

- 1.1 Investing in Securities, traded directly and indirectly on foreign stock exchanges, carries inherent risks. This means that the value of the assets could go down as well as up, and your capital may depreciate. The movement in the value of your assets would be effected by the price changes as well as changes in the rates of exchange between the Rand and foreign currencies. There are a number of ways in which this could happen. The fundamentals that determine the perceived value of a security could change. The security could be subject to changes in supply and demand resulting in significant price fluctuations. The stock market themselves are subject to large fluctuations due to economic and political factors. Assessing the relative risk of any of these factors is highly subjective, and can change as a result of a specific event. However risk can be effectively managed through diversification of asset classes, geographic location, as well as through use of market neutral trading strategies.
- 1.2 By your signature to this Schedule, you acknowledge that you have been informed of the risks inherent in the investments set out above. In addition, you accept that such risk may result in financial loss to you and acknowledge that you have not been guaranteed any investment return. These risks include currency risk, market risk and the risk of the default or insolvency on the part of foreign custodians, banks or other financial institutions utilised by us.
- 1.3 You hereby indemnify the firm and hold us harmless against – any loss incurred on your behalf pursuant to any bona fide investment made by us in terms of the Mandate; and any and all claims, damages, liabilities, costs and expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees, which may be brought against us by reason of the operation of your account.
- 1.4 You hereby indemnify any third party with whom we contract on your behalf and hold us or any such third party harmless from: any loss incurred on your behalf pursuant to any bona fide investment made by us with such third party in terms of the Mandate; and any and all claims, damages, liabilities, costs and expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees, which may be brought against us by reason of the operation of your account with respect to investments made for you with third parties.
- 1.5 Nothing herein contained shall however absolve us from liability for loss suffered by you or any other person through any act of fraud, theft, bad faith, dishonesty or gross negligence on our part or on the part of our employees. The afore going notwithstanding we assume no liability whatsoever for any act of fraud, theft, bad faith, dishonesty or gross negligence on the part of any third party as mentioned above, or on the part of any such third party's employees. Nor do we assume any liability in the event of the insolvency or subsequent sequestration or liquidation of such third party's estate.

2. Authority:

- 2.1 By your signature to this Schedule, you hereby appoint us as your duly authorised agent on your behalf to purchase and sell and to enter into any transaction in Investments which are listed, issued or traded primarily outside the Republic of South Africa ("foreign investments"), or to enter into approved offshore prudential asset swap agreements with third parties in accordance with the terms set out in the Mandate of which this Schedule forms part.
- 2.2 Should you also have authorised us to operate a discretionary portfolio account on your behalf and by your signature to the Discretionary portfolio Section, you agree that foreign investments effected by us on your behalf will also be subject to the terms of the Discretionary portfolio Section of the Mandate.
- 2.3 You agree that, in executing the Mandate and this Schedule, we may act through a third party of our choice. We shall ensure that such third party will, in respect of your foreign investments, give a similar undertaking and comply with similar obligations as those that we undertake in terms of the Mandate.
- 2.4 By your signature hereto, you acknowledge that, unless you have provided us with full discretion under the Mandate, advice (if any) given to you by us in respect of the foreign investments to be made was merely advice and did not restrict your discretion in choosing which foreign investments we are to make and that such discretion was accordingly exercised by you personally at all times. However, for the avoidance of doubt it is confirmed that you will at no time have direct access to offshore funds or investments, but will be obliged to transact through us as your duly authorised agent.
- 2.5 By your signature hereto, you warrant and undertake:
 - 2.5.1 to provide us with all information and/or assistance that may be required by foreign financial institutions or the South African Reserve Bank in effecting the foreign investments;
 - 2.5.2 to adhere to the terms of any approval granted by the South African Reserve Bank required by either us or you to effect the Foreign investments.
- 2.6 Should any of your funds, being transferred by us in terms of this Schedule to a foreign jurisdiction, be transferred pursuant to an authorisation received by us from the South African Reserve Bank, the terms upon which we will invest in foreign investment (including your access to such investments and/or cash) shall be subject to the terms of such authorisation.
- 2.7 Upon termination, we shall liquidate the relevant foreign investments and return the proceeds to your JSET account or your verified bank account (less any fees or expenses payable to us). Our obligation to redeem foreign investments shall be subject to any applicable notice period required by a foreign financial institution for the return of such foreign investments.
